Bio

Carla is married since 45 years and worked half her life as a museum workforce. There she got interested in any kind of statue and was curious about the history and meaning behind them. Living at the country-side, she started collecting those statues and explored a new market where anyone could create their own designs and ‚print' them with an actual printer ... 3D printing.

Frustrations

- can't navigate through the website
- font size is too small → can't read it
- wishes bigger figure sizes
- too many steps before terminating a buying process

Goals

- order an unknown number of personalised figures
- easy handling of the whole ordering process
